My wife, Martha, and I have just returned from our annual pilgrimage into "Marlboro Country," sometimes known as a vacation. We did things just a little different this year; we rode the proud bird with the golden tail. One of our ports of call was Vancouver, B.C., and a fine city, indeed, I couldn't help but observe the buses and how people rode them. Each bus has a sign by the door saying, "Have exact change ready." Now I know RTD has signs, too, but the difference is, they mean it in Vancouver. It sure speeds up the schedule.

I am getting real excited about the prospect of Rapid Transit in Los Angeles County. I visited the Rapid Transit Design Car and believe you-me, that's the way to go. Seventy-five miles an hour, smooth, comfortable ride in air-conditioned cars, I've been around this city for more years than I care to remember and all anyone has ever done about Rapid Transit is talk. Now things are different. You and I can go to the polls on November 5th and speak our piece. I am told it will cost you and me about 11-14 dollars a year for this system; that's less than 4¢ per day. It's worth 4¢ a day just to look at it, in my opinion.

Football is in the air, and Los Angeles has the finest offered anywhere. Whether you like the professional, hard driving Rams or the razzle-dazzle college variety, you'll find it all in the Coliseum. The Coliseum is easily reached from all parts of the city by RTD. Unless you've been caught in one of those giant football traffic jams, you can't really appreciate the bus. Send for a map and get ready for a season of thrilling football.

Q. I find the new 125 line to Los Angeles just great, and I want to use it to take the kids to Disneyland. What I want to know is, how do I go from Los Angeles to Disneyland and how long does it take? Mrs. P.R.C.

A. By taking the 7:30 a.m. 125 line commuter, you will be in Los Angeles at 8:45 a.m. You can catch the 9:10 Freeway Flyer to Disneyland and be there at 10:10. Remember the last commuter leaves the RTD terminal at 6:20 p.m., so you should leave Disneyland at 4:00 p.m.

Q. I live in Torrance near Crenshaw and I want to go to Inglewood by bus. Is this possible? Mr. M.L.

A. Yes, the Torrance 3 line will take you to South Bay, where you can catch the 5 line to downtown Inglewood. I'll send you a timetable and a map.

Q. How can I get to Pasadena from Westchester? I am within walking distance of the RTD 51 line, W.T.

A. The 51 line is a good start. When you get to Los Angeles on the 51 bus, get off at 7th and Spring and catch a 70 or 71 bus to Pasadena.

Q. How can I get information on buses going to the Fair? I live in Downey, Mrs. L.L.J.

A. Would you believe from me? Take the 58 line into the Los Angeles terminal and one of the Fair Specials direct to the Fair Grounds in Pomona.

Send your questions to Artie Dee, Transportation Editor, care of this newspaper. All questions will be answered in the column, or by mail. A system map will be sent FREE to each reader writing in. NO STAMPS OR STAMPED ENVELOPES ARE NECESSARY.

LOVE at First Bite!

Almost every day someone we know tells us they've just met Tenderay Brand Beef—and fell in love at first bite. Maybe it's Tenderay's natural TENDERNESS. Or its demure blush of freshness. Or its promise of eternal faithfulness (Tenderay takes the guesswork out of buying beef, forever!). Think you're too sophisticated to find romance in a piece of beef? Then we DARE you to meet Tenderay—we'll be glad to introduce you.
